Descriptions:

Mt. Huangshan - Mt. Huangshan is located in the south Anhui Province, spanning 40 kilometers from south to north and 30 kilometers from east to west. The main scenic area covers an area of about 160.6 square kilometers. It is said that the mountain has 36 large peaks and 36 small peaks, among which the Lotus Peak, the Bright Peak and the Heaven Capital Peak are the most famous ones. They are located in the heart of the whole scenic area and are surrounded by over 70 mountains over 1,000 meters in height.

Hongcun Village--As the Chinese saying goes: "The wise enjoy the waters; the benevolent enjoy the mountains." So it is with Hongcun Village in Anhui Province, which enjoys both water and mountains. Located at the foot of the Huangshan Mountain, the village's construction has evolved around crisscrossing streams and a central lake. With its traditional buildings sporting whitewashed walls and flying cornices, the village is a refreshing stop for tourists on their way to Huangshan Mountain.

Jingdezhen Town has a long brilliant history and it is well-known all over the world for its porcelain. People in Jingdezhen began to make porcelain in about 300 AD. It has been praised as "Capital of Porcelain" because of its unique porcelain technology and master works.
